I'm so sorry to hear about Aunt Bernice... I only remember meeting her once, but my dad, Berry Cecil loved her so much and shared many stories of her growing up... I pray for peace and comfort for all of our family and friends.... I love you Aunt Bernice and give Uncle Jimmie a big hug and kiss from me....

Aunt Bernice made me (and other nieces) a quilt by hand which epitomized her quiet way of giving you a memory, warm hug and something to treasure all at once. The quilt is well loved, decades old, but still looks brand new because of her beautiful handiwork. She will be missed and always remembered. Love to all, Lynn & Keith Megginson
