

Brenda Faye Simms

MAY 31, 1950 - NOV 11, 2015

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary .....	Page 3
Events .....	Page 4
Tribute Wall .....	Page 5

Brenda Faye Simms

MAY 31, 1950 - NOV 11, 2015

Brenda Faye Simms, of Wilmington, affectionately known as “Miss Brenda,” passed away on Wednesday, November 11, 2015 at Delaware Hospice in Milford. She was 65.

She was born on May 31, 1950 in Easton, Maryland, the daughter of the late Noble Lee Simms and Mary Eleanora Haynes Simms.

Miss Brenda attended Caroline County schools and was employed as an assembler at Service Source in Wilmington. She enjoyed swimming and bowling, as well as shopping, and loved listening to music, especially gospel music. When spending time with family in Seaford, she attended the Clarence Street Church of God and attending various cultural events. Most importantly, she enjoyed spending time with her family and friends, whom she truly adored.

During the last eight years, Miss Brenda resided in the Bancroft Homes of Wilmington, DE. She was supported there by staff who cared deeply about her daily care and well being. In addition, she was also supported by her beloved sister Shirley and extended family.

She is survived by her five siblings, Russell Simms, of Smyrna, DE; Virgil Simms, of Hurlock, MD; Shirley Woolford, of Seaford, DE; Barbara Stevens, of Smyrna, DE; and Sylvia Ross, and her husband Robert, of Camden, DE; a special friend, Antonio Knotts, of Bear, DE; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. She is preceded in death by four brothers: Morris Simms, Sr., Claude Simms, Shelton Simms, and Alonzo Simms.

Funeral Services will be held on Friday, November 20, 2015 at 12:00 p.m. at the Framptom Funeral Home in Federalsburg with Reverend Willie Jackson and Pastor Kelly Greene officiating. Interment will follow at Federal Hill Cemetery. Family will receive friends one hour prior to the service.

Events

Brenda Faye Simms

MAY 31, 1950 - NOV 11, 2015

Service

Friday, November 20, 2015

11:00 AM - 12:00 PM ET

Framptom Funeral Home - Federalsburg
216 North Main Street, Federalsburg MD 21632

Service

Friday, November 20, 2015

12:00 PM ET

Framptom Funeral Home - Federalsburg
216 North Main Street, Federalsburg MD 21632

Cemetery Details

Federal Hill Cemetery
East Central Avenue at The Pond, Federalsburg
MD 21632

Tribute Wall

Brenda Faye Simms

MAY 31, 1950 - NOV 11, 2015

SP

Sheila Powell posted:

Since the passing of my dear Aunt Brenda, I think of all the wonderful memories full of joy and laughter she left behind. Babe, as we called her, has been a constant encouragement to the entire family. Her example of overcoming her trials and challenges throughout her life will always be with me. I was blessed to be born in the same house as Brenda and only eight years younger. Truly a gift it was to have experienced the love and affection she gave without ever feeling a jealous heart. Somehow she always had enough, happiness, laughter, and candy for all the generations. Brenda had eyes opened wide and a heart ready to burst for all the babies that came along. Arms ready to hold each one in the Simms family. Her life started out in a slow pace but gradually she quickened her speed and flourished in many ways. She became a productive worker, traveler, and accomplished many things. Although our hearts are heavy, let's allow our memory of Brenda to draw us closer to God and his son Jesus Christ. Like she always said, "I'm just fine... Thank the LORD!" (Galatians 6:9 Do not tire out.) Sheila Powell

November 20 at 5:05 AM

SP

Sheila Powell posted:

Since the passing of my dear Aunt Brenda, I think of all the wonderful memories full of joy and laughter she left behind. Babe, as we called her, has been a constant encouragement to the entire family. Her example of overcoming her trials and challenges throughout her life will always be with me. I was blessed to be born in the same house as Brenda and only eight years younger. Truly a gift it was to have experienced the love and affection she gave without ever feeling a jealous heart. Somehow she always had enough, happiness, laughter, and candy for all the generations. Brenda had eyes opened wide and a heart ready to burst for all the babies that came along. Arms ready to hold each one in the Simms family. Her life started out in a slow pace but gradually she quickened her speed and flourished in many ways. She became a productive worker, traveler, and accomplished many things. Although our hearts are heavy, let's allow our memory of Brenda to draw us closer to God and his son Jesus Christ. Like she always said, "I'm just fine... Thank the LORD!" (Galatians 6:9 Do not tire out.) Sheila Powell

November 20 at 5:05 AM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Brenda by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit