I first became friends with Helen at Federalsburg Fire hall bingo. We had a lot of fun talking and complaining about the same people always winning, that was usually not us! I came to meet and know Ralph when Helen stopped driving. He would often stop by my home when running errands in town for a glass of tea and some conversation. We stayed in touch through my move to Florida, Helens death and even Ralphs failing health. I will truly miss Ralph and will cherish the fond memories of this wonderful couple. Sharon Borcharding

Thank you Joyce. We love you too. I know both mom and dad enjoyed seeing you and Jim and Mom always thought of you as a sister. They got a kick out of Jim and his "humor". I will never forget the joke he played on mom with the candle and the plate, lmao that was so funny. This page is great for sharing that kind of stuff. Love You.
