Tommy graduated with my brother, Albert (Al) Marshall. I knew several in that class. Tommy was a funny and easy going guy as I recall. My sympathy to the whole family. He will be missed and remembered.

I couldn't say it better than Tennyson: Crossing The Bar - Poem by Alfred Lord Tennyson
Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.
Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;
For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crost the bar.
Love and strength to your family in this difficult time.
