To the family, I can't begin to express my sadness hearing about Victoria's passing. I enjoyed her company so much when she came into the dental office with her devoted Kaye. I loved the way we were able to communicate in our own way about things. She loved showing me the new outfits Bonnie bought her and how she was wearing her stockings that she told me I should wear to, but I don't listen to my docotrs like she did....I knew when she held her hands in a small pinching way that she wanted new proxabruses that she loved so much. When we discussed that I had seen pictures of the beautiful grandchildren & great grandchildren and would comment how they are growing so quickly I would hear her famous..."Oh Boy". It was fun to see her laugh when Dr. Hawkins "danced" with her in the office placing her in the wheelchair. I am so happy that I did get to see her recently, and she looked great! I was out of town during the service for her, otherwise I would have come to pay my respects, i've never done that for any other patient, but would have liked to for her. I will miss her... just wanted you to know. Pattie##imported-begin##Pattie Ripple##imported-end##
