George A. Baer, Jr.

MAR 22, 1930 - MAY 18, 2011

George A. Baer, Jr. passed away on Wednesday, May 18, 2011 at Delmar Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Delmar, DE. He was 81.

He was born in Easton, Maryland on March 22, 1930, the son of the late George A. Baer, Sr., and the former Ruth Poole.

He graduated from Easton High School class of 1947. He began his career at the Star Democrat and then attended linotype school in New York City. After returning home, he worked as a linotype operator at the Star Democrat and later for the Seaford Leader. During his employment, he entered the Maryland National Guard from 1950 to 1956. He was married to Shirley Jane Henry Baer for more than 50 years. She preceded him in death on February 20, 2002.

He enjoyed playing softball, shuffleboard, cards, and dominos. He was known for his sense of humor and ability to make people laugh.

He is survived by a daughter, Debbie Street and her husband John of Bridgeville, DE and a son, Robert Baer and his wife Donna of Salisbury, MD, three grandchildren, Tyler and Emily Baer and Megan Street, and a sister, Marian Trippe and her husband, Richard of Easton.

Funeral services will be held on Monday, May 23, 2011 at 1:00p.m. at the Framptom Funeral Home in Federalsburg with the Reverend Denzil T. Cheek officiating. Interment will follow in Bridgeville Cemetery. The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service.

Because of the family's appreciation for the service of Hospice, expressions of sympathy can be made in his name to the Coastal Hospice, P.O. Box 1733, Salisbury, Maryland 21802.

We are very sorry for George's passing. But you know he's most likely up there now playing cards with his box in front of him. Laughing! I will never forget all the cards game that our familys had together. Sometimes they got loud!!!!He will be missed but never forgotten.Donna##imported-begin##Dona & Donald Thompson##imported-end##

We were so sorry to hear of Uncle George's passing. He was a sweet man with a gentle soul. He never lost his sense of humor and was always quick to tell a joke. He was always kind and gracious and faced life's dificulties with courage and strength. We will miss him.##imported-begin##Mark and Susan Andrew##imported-end##

We are so sad for your loss. We are so thankful that we were able to celebrate George and Meredith's birthdays in March. We willl always have fond memories of our trips to Delmar to see George. Meredith will miss talking with George about all their adventures as young boys on their grandparent's farm.##imported-begin##Meredith and Ann Thomas##imported-end##
