Please accept our condolences. We only knew George as a Walmart employee, but he was always, always cheerful when he greeted us. He recognized us as regulars, and he seemed to enjoy joking around with my children, particularly my youngest son. They definitely enjoyed it! We will miss him.##imported-begin##Mina Pincus & Family##imported-end##

I worked with George at Walmart. He was always teasing me when I was leaving the store to go home. He always threatened to lock the doors on me, so I could not leave. I saw him for the last time either last Tuesday or Wednesday. George asked me where i was going...I said home and he told me have a good night. I said see you later. All i can say is that we all lost a good friend and we as part of the Walmart family lost a good man and I am going to miss his smiles and his teasing.###imported-begin###Janice Clark###imported-end##

A true loss. My husband and I knew him from conversations we would have with him while at WalMart. He is a genuinely sweet man and the world has truly lost a good soul.###imported-begin###Jenny Pollard###imported-end##
