My Dear Baby Sister .. Oh how many times have we laughed together, digging flowers, canning veggies, peeling peaches, and "cheating" one another playing Phase Ten, those early morning phone calls and the late ones too, the times I teased you until we both cried, we laughed, we cried, we prayed together those are the good times that will be in my heart forever. I am looking forward to seeing you again, save me a seat. I love you!##imported-begin##Helen Wagner Mills##imported-end##

I was so sorry to read about Val's passing. Having taught all three children, I know firsthand what a great mom she was, always wanting the best for each of you. She also offered me hospitality as a young teacher far from my family. I appreciated Val, and remember each of you fondly. My prayers are with you.
