Aunt Margie, I am so going to miss your beautiful smile and your onery self. I will miss seeing you at the family gatherings, where we would sit and laugh and talk about the old days. Such a pretty lady, such a kind and giving heart. I know that you are in a better place, yet it is hard to let you go. You are now reunited with your beloved Harry. I can only imagine the welcome you received from Mom-mom and Mom and Uncle Eddie when God brought you home to them. I love you and I will miss you. With love, your onery girl.##imported-begin##Wanda Wagster##imported-end##
