Chuck And Sharon Schlotzhauer Neuwiller lit a candle in honor of Katherine.

Ms Katherine was a dear friend. I enjoyed the cookies, pie and coffee with her on days I would go over to the farm. She watched out over the horses and would call me if she felt or saw something that needed attention concerning them. My heart is broken to know that she isn't there anymore. I loved her for her friendship, her stories from way back when and lovingly gave the boys, Charlie and Willy fresh water during the summer. She would tell me about their personality's and would laugh at their antics. I know they will miss her apples as well. Heaven has gained another sweet lady. I like to think she will be the Angel to watch over the boys for me. I know she enjoyed them and would tell me stories concerning them all with a twinkle in eye and laughter. ❤️ Sending hugs to the family. Chuck and Sharon Schlotzhauer Neuwiller

Mary Engle lit a candle in honor of Katherine.

Katherine was a kind and loving person. I got to know Katherine from both sides of her family - her father married (2nd marriage for both) my Aunt Edith Whitby, and her husband Leroy was a brother to my father-in-law, Raymond Engle. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. Mary Engle and sons, Donald, Craig and Mark.
