Nancy V. Harrington

MAY 3, 1959 - FEB 4, 2019

Nancy V. Harrington of Cordova, Maryland passed away on Monday, February 4, 2019 at Talbot Hospice in Easton. She was 59. Let it be known that Nancy fought a courageous 3-year struggle with pancreatic cancer. Nancy never gave in nor did she give up.

She was born on May 3, 1959 in Easton, Maryland, the daughter of the late Julian Hopkins and Anita Morris Hopkins of Easton.

Nancy graduated from St. Michaels High School with the class of 1977. She later graduated from Towson State University with a degree in Health Sciences. She was married on December 27, 1981 to Bruce Harrington and they made their home in Cordova, MD.

Nancy was a homemaker. She loved raising her family, cooking, gardening, growing tomatoes and quilting. After her children were grown, she assisted her husband in the family contracting business. An avid tennis player, she was a member of the USTA. She loved to entertain; her dinner party invitations were highly sought after by her family and friends.

Nancy loved growing up on the family farm "Solitude ". This is where she developed her love of gardening and the outdoors.

She is survived by her husband of 38 years, Bruce Harrington of Cordova, two sons, Jameson Harrington and his partner, Renee of Cambridge, Porter Harrington of Cordova, her mother, Anita Hopkins of Easton, one sister, Julie Hopkins and her husband Steve Holtzholb of Covington, LA, a dear family friend, Scotti LeCates of Easton, her nieces, Ashley Hopkins, Patty Burke-McQuay and Sasha Simonson, her nephew, David Cherry, and her sister-in-law's, Kim Simonsen and Kim Hopkins.

In addition to father, she was preceded in death by one brother, Thomas Hopkins and one sister, Linda Morris Hopkins.

Nancy's smile lit up her entire being. You could see it in her eyes. It was as if she wore her heart on the outside. I remember planting her tomato seedlings and learning that it was her father who showed her how to coax life from seeds. I remember being in the bucket of her and Bruce's tractor, picking the sour cherries high on their beloved tree. Nancy taught me how to make jelly from those cherries.
