I will always remember Marsha as "Mom". She let me move into her home, and treated me as one of her own, and for that, I am forever grateful. She was a wonderful person, and now as an angel, I am sure that she will do many great things from the other side of the veil. Even though things fell apart, I have always felt a love in my heart for Marsha, Shannon, and Scott, and have considered all of you as family.

So very sorry for your loss losing a mom is one of the hardest may she rest in peace.

Marsha was my mother's best friend and pretty much like family. I will always remember her playing canasta with my mother in our kitchen when I was a teenager. Marsha and my mother called each other Bud and would make us Bud burgers which were actually cheeseburgers but that's what Marsha and my Mom would call them. One of the things I will miss most is hearing her call me Moot my nickname as a child. Marsha was the only one who still called me that every time she would see me. R.I.P Marsha

My mother was a amazing and wonderful woman! Mom always made everyone smile and she cared about everyone. This lady raised me pretty much by herself and for that I will always be thankful. Most times she worked more then one job to take care of her family. I can never thank my mother enough because who I am today I owe all to her. I will never forget you mom. Fly high my Angel and Rest until we meet again.

I remember when we sat on the couch and we were watching say yes to the dress. And you would tell me to turn off the AC and a minute later you would tell me to turn it back on. -Marsha
