Thank you Dad for the 50+ years of memories. I've learned a lot from you, especially all about deer hunting and watching deer, lol. Thank you for being a great dad and grandfather to our large family. Every evening when Eric and I watch the deer at the deer feeder you provided us, you'll be right there with us. You've worked a hard life and now you're with God and your family in Heaven. Enjoy yourself and always know you will be loved and very much missed. Love you Dad. 😊
