Holley, Sean and Aedan, please accept my heartfelt love and sympathy during this difficult time. Not everyone in our lives belongs in the next chapter of our story. But we grow strength from them and they will always be a part of us. Timmy was so loved by many, he will truly be missed. Holley, there is something about being mentally tough and prepared that you do eloquently well. I was speechless when I learned of his passing, your dad is the same age as mine, it was hard to swallow that grief. He walks beside Jesus now and has no more pain, he is at peace. Please know you are in my daily thoughts & prayers. Sean, I learned just how much of a positive influence that Timmy had over your life and you are a better man and forever changed because of him. I am thankful that you had such a wonderful father-in-law. Aedan, grandfathers are so special. I wish you could've had more years with him...but I know you will cherish the memories you had together forever.
