Pop-pop, I think about you often. You were the best Grandpa anyone could have asked for. You always made me laugh and I'll never forget all the great times we had together over the Holidays and summers that we spent together. I wish you could meet my son and daughter Broden and Blakely. I believe in Heaven and that we will all be reunited there someday. I miss our time together and regret taking it for granted. I'll always think about those great weekends together and cherish our memories. Love Brett
