Beloved Husband, Father, Grandfather, Great Grandfather and friend, Lt. Col. Henry Micheliche Sr. of Hurlock, Maryland passed away quietly at his home, surrounded by family on Sunday, August 8, 2021 at the age of 88.

He was born on May 4, 1933 in Brooklyn, New York, the son of the late Felix Micheliche and Theresa Torres Gonzales.

Henry was married to the late Norma A Pimentel on October 28, 1955.

He was a man of many talents and accomplishments. He was extremely gifted in Art and was chosen and attended the High School of Performing Arts (now known as Fiorello H. LaGuardia High School). After High School, a friend got him into boxing, where he worked his way into the Golden Gloves and knocking out an opponent in 10 seconds won him the title of Feather Weight Champ, he was approached by a trainer that wanted to train him in a career of boxing, but his love for his country pulled him in another direction and he enlisted in the United States Air Force. After several years of enlistment, he decided that he wanted to become an officer and went to officer training school. During his training, volunteers were asked for and unknowing what he was volunteering for, he volunteered. What they were looking for, was pilot trainees. This led him to lifelong career as a pilot. He served in the Korean War and the Vietnam War as a reconnaissance pilot where he flew many missions into dangerous territories.

He traveled to many places around the world, lived in many states and countries and saw many things. His love for flying spanned over a half a century, he was a decorated war vet receiving many honors including the Distinguished Flying Cross, he served in the National Guard, the Civil Air Patrol and was a Pilot for United Air Lines for 30 years. By the time of his retirement, he was a Captain for United Air Lines and a Lt. Col. In the United States Air Force.

Micheliche Knocks Out Cintron in 10 Seconds

By JOHN STAUDT

Henry Micheliche, a rugged youngster with plenty of power, may not go too far in the current edition of the New York Golden Gloves, but he established a record last night at the Ridgewood Grove which should be hard to beat. He came out swinging and was declared the winner over Fernando Cintron after 10 seconds, to advance to the quarter finals of the 118-pound sub-novice division.

Henry Micheliche, a rugged youngster with plenty of power, may not go too far in the current edition of the New York Golden Gloves, but he established a record last night at the Ridgewood Grove which should be hard to beat. He came out swinging and was declared the winner over Fernando Cintron after 10 seconds, to advance to the quarter finals of the 118-pound sub-novice division.

Micheliche caught his opponent with a hard right to the head. Cintron was dazed. After two more hard hits, referee Frank Morris stopped the fight.

Another youngster to score a quick knockout was Robert Biscazio, wearing the colors of the Department of Parks. Also fighting in the 118-pound division, he disposed of James Brown of the PAL via the TKO route at 1:45 of the opening round.

Dennis R. Gilson, who hanks his ear in Jamaica, had hopes of getting through the 100-pound open class. He was fortunate in the opening round, but in last night's second round he met up with a tough kid in Alvin Nelson of the PAL, and was eliminated after 2:18 of the first round.

Before Referee Johnny LoBianco of Elmhurst stopped the fight, Gilson hit the canvas for a nine-count. Morris Stell of the PAL came near breaking Micheliche's mark when he disposed of Hector Bossa, fighting unattached, in 12 seconds. Stell dropped Bossa with his first punch. LoBianco started to count but stopped at eight when he saw Bossa was in no condition to continue.
