Aunt Jeanette was always kind to me from the time I was a child to present. Even though she was in pain and having a hard time in recent years, she still found the time to send me a card and wish me well. She was a giving kind person and I will miss her dearly.

That beautiful smile and loving heart. Always happy to see you and catch up on what was going on in your life. I do not believe I ever heard her speak a word against anyone. She loved her family and it showed in every way...God be with you all now, as I know first hand, how hard it is to say goodbye to your momma (Grandmother) She will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved her. Rest easy sweet soul.....
