Frances Dee Poore-Spicer

SEP 4, 1935 - AUG 19, 2021

Frances "Dee" Spicer of Blades, DE passed away on Thursday, August 19, 2021. She was 85. She was born September 4, 1935, the daughter of the late Charles F. Noble, Jr. and Irene Frances Baker of Preston, MD.

She was married to Lt. Robert Vernon Poore of Federalsburg, MD until his passing and later married James N. Spicer of Milford, DE and Mt. Joy, PA.

She graduated from Hurlock High School with the class of 1953 and then graduated from West Virginia University with the class of 1960. She received her Master's Education at Washington College in Chestertown, MD as well as at University of Maryland. She went on to teach art in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and southern Caroline County. She retired from Colonel Richardson Middle school after teaching for over 25 years as a librarian and a teacher.

Dee enjoyed entering the Adult Plus Art Shows at Delaware Tech in Georgetown where she won first, second, and honorable mention for her paintings in oils and watercolors. She also enjoyed going to the Nanticoke Senior Center in Seaford, DE and attending church with her son and daughter-in-law.

She was preceded in death by C. Fulton Noble, founder of the first Ford dealership (Noble Ford) in Preston, MD and Provident State Bank, having tomato canners at Friendship, MD and Cannon, DE and Cora Fischer Willis Noble. She was also preceded in death by her aunt and uncle, Charles A. Baker and Grace Coulbourne, her brother, Charles F. Noble III and his son, Kevin Charles Noble, and her mother and father.

She is survived by her son, Steven Eric Poore and his wife Sharon Lea of Blades, DE, and her daughter Carolyn Dee Lewis and her husband Laird, four granddaughters, Amy Lyn Grimes-Plummer, Brittany N. Poore Clough, Lindsay B. Poore, and Taylor E. Short, two great-grandsons, Richard Boyd Lee Plummer and Junior Clough, and one great-granddaughter due in 2022, and one sister, Sue Noble Moran of Oak

I have fond memories of Frances Dee, who I believe was my mother's cousin (my mother was Kay Noble Tall, the daughter of Lee and Modie Noble from Preston). Sending thoughts of sympathy to the family.

Dee is my sister-in-law (was married to my brother, James N. Spicer) and a sweeter person would be difficult to find. My husband and I visited in DE and Dee and Jim made several trips to our home in PA. We had many enjoyable moments during those times spent together. After my brother passed away, we traveled to visit Dee until health problems interfered. We will always hold Dee in our hearts as the kindest and most thoughtful sister-in-law anybody could ever want. Unfortunately, due to my recent surgery, we will be unable to attend the services, but we will be there in spirit and love. I'm sure the beauty of Heaven will inspire Dee in her Heavenly artistry.
