She was born on January 15, 1943 in Federalsburg, Maryland daughter of the late Albert and Lillian Leeser.

Liz spent her vacations in Ocean City, MD, sunbathing at the beach. She liked shopping, especially during Christmas when she had a thoughtful gift for everyone. She had a heart for animals and shared companionship with some special dogs throughout the years (Buddy, Faith, and Belle).

Most of all, she deeply loved her family.

She is survived by two children, Lisa Marino and husband Frank of Seaford, Joey Paul II of Cokesbury, MD six grandchildren and eight great grandchildren, Hollie Gordon and husband Joseph of Georgetown, DE (Adelynn Joy, Iyla Grace), Elizabeth

When I married into the Mitchell family, I was blessed with a niece by the name of Liz Leeser. We have shared so many laughs, tears and silly antics. I am sure as she entered the Pearly Gates she was met by God with open arms. I am going to miss our phone calls and you caring not only for me, but for others. Fly high Liz Leeser Paul. I love you! ❤️ ❤️ ❤️ ❤️

My sincere condolences to her family.Liz was a good friend always. We had known each other since first grade, and we had a lot of fun in high school. Much of the credit goes to her for the FHS Class of 1961 great class reunions, all the way through our 50th.Sad that she was stricken by a virus that left her robbed of the good health that she had always enjoyed.She brought friendship and joy to many, and she will be missed.

My sincere condolences to Lisa, Joey and their families. I have known Liz since first grade. What a loyal friend and partner in crime over the years! Words cannot express the joy, humor, craziness and loyalty she brought to the Class of '61!! For many years she organized our reunions and we were so grateful. I was honored to sing at their wedding all those years ago, A treasured memory. When I moved back to the "Sho in '01, she sent me a box of salt water taffy. How appropriate. A small group of us would meet at "the Freeze" and she would ALWAYS order fries with Old Bay seasoning!!!! Lizzy was one of a kind and will be greatly missed.Heavenly hugs, Pam Medford Epprecht
