Marie, I am so sorry. I have known you and Kelly for a long time. I remember when Kelly had brought you to the house for the first time. He was so happy to be your husband and was bursting to tell Joe and I that you and he had gotten married. Kelly worked hard when he worked with Joe and Mike doing concrete. I remember his Aunt Janice dropping him off in the morning and picking him up in the evening. He was full of joy and laughter. I enjoyed all the visits and chats that we had and of course the spades games we played. Rest peacefully Kelly! Shirley Clark & Family
