Kory Lee Andrew of Preston passed away at his home on Friday, December 3, 2021, from medical complications . He was 51.

He was born on July 8, 1970 in Easton, Maryland, the son of Richard L. Andrew and Donna Lomax Andrew of Preston.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by his siblings: Kari Farnell and her husband Chris of Federalsburg, Katie Whaples and her husband Bobby of Preston, and Kasey Andrew and his wife Diane of Preston; his nieces and nephews: Meridith Gray and her husband Jordan, Christopher Farnell, Alyson Whitman and her husband Brian, Andrew Whaples, Austin Whaples, Aidan Whaples, Asher Whaples; one great nephew: Maverick Gray and one great niece: McKenna Gray.

A graveside funeral service will be held on Friday, December 10, 2021 at 1:00 at Junior Order Cemetery in Preston with the Reverend Mark Farnell officiating.

I just found out that you are gone and although it has been years since we saw each other, I miss and will always miss you my friend. There are too many great memories. From shooting pool, to going to weddings as each other's +1, to watching movies, to theater, to hanging out, to you coming over to hang with me when my upstairs neighbor was going crazy. You were a true gentleman and I am a better person for having known you.

Kory, what can I say. Our time here is short and I realize we must do what we can while we are here. Until we meet again...remembering those days at Colonel Richardson. You will be missed by many.

Kory was always so nice and probably one of the most genuine people I have ever met. I worked with him at Lowe's over 10 years ago but he always sticks out as one of the hardest working and nicest people that worked there. He will be missed and my thoughts are with his family.
