I remember the day Richard gave his heart to the Lord at Crossroads Community Church. He called me and Jay so excited to tell us the news. From that day forward, there was no doubt that he loved the Lord. He showed his love by serving others and continued to grow in the Lord through studying God's Word and attending church on a regular basis. So thankful for that day and that we know for sure that we will see Richard again someday in heaven. Love you, Pop!
