To Ralph's family, you all have our heartfelt sympathy. We were discussing him recently, to find out he went Home to his reward. I consider Ralph an old friend from Canada days in the 80's. I was quite young then, he was a father figure to me. I especially enjoyed his pranks & humorous outlook on life, I believe everyone who knew him can recall a few of them! 😊 Ralph believed in good old fashioned "hard work" , he led by example & instilled those values in me. I admired how in his 50's he could pass me up in my teenage years. Whenever I would meet Ralph, the very first thing he would always ask is " Are you still behaving?" I hope to meet him again in Heaven, till then good bye my dear friend!Daryl & Velma Stauffer

Well, Ralph fixed up an old house on Beaver Street in Greenwood for us to live in way back in the mid-70's. That has always been a special place for me. He was at NYP several times when Dave and I were there. He was an old-timer.. and not many of them are around any longer. I pray for healing for the remaining family members as they come together these coming days.
