I will never forget when I first adopted my children in 2006. My sister, Mary brought Angie over to meet them. I remember Emma (who was two at the time) being in the room, and Angie said multiple times, "I love you!" to her. I thought this was the sweetest thing, and it showed her kind and loving heart. I will never forget that! Then much later, we were at a gathering and my kids were there. Angie hadn't seen them in years. She looked my teen son, Ian straight in the eyes and said, "You are cute!" Again, such a genuine and loving person, and she will be greatly missed. Your family is in our prayers. Genie Kostkowski Hood, Ian and Emma
