Hello Family and Friends of Robert, My fondest memories are still those Friday night card games with Bob, Ricky, and Otto at Bob's little house, behind the Cohee farm in Preston. We had to watch "The Mary Tyler Moore Show", then "Bob Newhart" before the cards came out. Then it was off to the kitchen for a fun night of cards, cheese and crackers, and a bit of beer, too. Those were simpler days! Bob certainly will be missed by many of us. Sincerely, Rita Trice
