In Loving Memory of James "Jimmy" Coulbourne (1944 - 2023) 79

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of a beloved husband, father, brother and dedicated public servant, Jimmy "Jim" Coulbourne, who peacefully departed this world on November 28, 2023.

Throughout his life, Jim wore many hats and excelled in various roles. He began his journey as a young man who embraced the call of duty by joining the US Army, then later serving as a dedicated police officer for the town of Federalsburg. A town and community that he loved.

Later in life, Jim transitioned into a new chapter, where he became a skilled truck driver. His adventurous spirit took him on countless journeys across the open roads of this great nation, making new friends along the way and forging cherished memories that would last a lifetime.

In the later years of his career, Jim found fulfillment in his role as an employee of the Town of Federalsburg. His commitment to public service continued to shine through as he worked diligently to enhance the community he cared for deeply.

Above all else, Jim's greatest role was that of a loving husband and father. He now joins his beloved wife, Brenda, in heaven, as she preceded him in death by only a few months. Theirs was a love story for the ages, a bond that not even death could break. Together, they created a home that was the heart of their family.

Jim was a father to his surviving children: Deanna, Jackie, Jason, Jimmy 3rd, David, and Lacie. Many of Jim's qualities will live on in each of them.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents, his beloved brother Windsor, his son James 2nd, his son Mitch, and his loving sister Pat. Their memory lives on in the hearts of those who loved them.

Jim's joyful spirit was infectious, and he had an extraordinary ability to bring laughter and warmth into any room. He loved to joke, laugh, and share smiles with those around him. His sense of humor and quick wit were truly remarkable, and he will be fondly remembered for the joy he brought to the lives of all who knew him.

In addition to his brother David and wife Kathy, Jim leaves behind many loving children, nieces, nephews, and grandchildren who will forever cherish the moments they shared with him.

As we say goodbye, let us remember the life he lived, the love he shared, and the lasting impact he had on our lives. His laughter and smile will forever be etched in our hearts, and his kindness will continue to inspire us all.

May Jim's soul rest in eternal peace. Though our hearts are hurting now, we have the memories to hold. Rest assured Jim will be waiting for each of us on the other side with a funny line and his signature smile.

Special thanks to Jason and Shannon Smith and Becky Reed for their invaluable help and support over the last several months.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, December 16, 2023 at 11:00 at the Framptom Funeral Home in Federalsburg with the Reverend Denzil Cheek officiating. Interment will follow at Bloomery Cemetery in Smithville. The family will receive friends from 10:00 to 11:00.
