April 14, 1978 - May 17, 2025
Trappe, Maryland

Brian Earl Faulkner passed away on Saturday, May 17, 2025, in Sarasota, Florida, at the age of 47.

Born in Baltimore, Maryland, Brian was the beloved son of Danny and Vickie Faulkner of Odenton. He graduated from Old Mill High School, Class of 1996 and married Sarah Klemkowski on October 19, 2002. Together they built their first home filled with love in Preston and Federalsburg a few years later, and then later settling in Trappe, Maryland and more recently Sarasota, Florida.

Brian and Sarah were true partners in life and in work. Over 20 years ago, they founded Mid Shore Exteriors. Brian brought a passion for innovation, excellence, and service to the roofing industry and helped grow the business into a trusted name on the Eastern Shore. His work ethic, drive, and commitment to his customers helped shape Mid Shore Exteriors into a trusted and successful business. Roofing wasn't just a job to Brian-it was a passion, and he poured his heart into every project.

Family was everything to Brian. He was a loving father, and a joyful presence in the lives of all who knew him. He adored his daughters, Taylor and Briana, and loved making memories with them.

Brian had a personality that lit up every room, a sense of humor that could make anyone laugh, and a heart full of kindness. Everyone who met him liked him-it was simply impossible not to.
