I was shocked when I heard of Harold's passing, which I discovered today (February 15th). Harold and I once worked together when I came to work at the former Washington Disbursement Center, Department of the Treasury in 1969; at that time both of us worked in computer operations. We were veterans of the military. Both of us moved on to greater heights in the Financial Management Service, Dept of the Treasury. Harold and I used to share a lot of laughs from time to time, even with his dry sense of humor. R.I.P Harold With sympathy... James W. Preston, Sr., Washington. D.C.
