“ Aunt Bernice, Joy, and Bruce...our sincere condolences and prayers for your comfort. I (Gary) recall very well times spent with you all and Uncle Chet in Catonsville. I'm glad Judy and I got to attend his birthday party a few years back, and that Judy got to meet you then. Take care. Blessings!

“ Bernice, Joyce and Bruce: I offer my condolences on the death of my youngest and last remaining Uncle, the youngest of my Mother's four brothers. "Chet" was like an older brother to me during my childhood years. We shared many joyful hours then, and again in our post-war, post military service, years. - "Dave"
