“ Words can't begin to describe how incredible it was to be raised among such a loving family. No matter who, how, or where you spent time you were always “home” in every sense of the word. Many, many memories come flooding back, too numerous to mention but each one a pleasure to remember. The Marshall family with Our grand parents, and the three brothers and three sisters.....and the stories they told about growing up are so special. Then that also included the many cousins! But I have to say that I really enjoyed being around uncle Henry and “Sitter” (as many of us called her). They were so much fun to be around! Rest peacefully Sitter.....you are in a better place with others who also love you so much!
