“ MY THOUGHTS AND PRAYERS ARE WITH EACH AND EVERY ONE OF YOU.MAY GOD BE WITH YOU IN YOUR NEED OF SORROW.LOVE BETSY

betsy bryan(ferguson) - January 05, 2010 at 08:34 AM

“ I sincerely offer my deepest condolence. No matter when a loved one leaves they are gone too soon. Death separates family members and cause such great loss. This results in deep sorrow. But, please accept my concern and sentiments at this grievous time.

Harry will be dearly missed. Complete reliance on “the God of all comfort” will help to endure his bereavement (2Cor. 1:3, 4). Yes, you may experience sorrow, but you are not alone.

So despite the pain of grief, never give up. Let it be your resolve to continue to work your way through your pain and grief. What a blessing it will be when we can rightly ask: “Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?”—1 Corinthians 15:55.

“ To all of the family, my thoughts and prayers are with you in the loss of a devoted husband, father and grandfather. Mother loved Harry and Bertie and thought the world of Uncle Harry and Aunt Lottie. I know from losing my mom this year that there is a constant void in my life which you will have too.....Think of the happy and good times and know he might be gone in body but will always be watching over you. That will give you great comfort.

“ Dearest Aunt Bertie and family,
My heartfelt sympathy on Uncle Harry's passing.
It gives me great comfort to know he's watching over all of us and he is no longer suffering.
I have so many fond memories of Aunt Bertie, Uncle Harry and all of Brambles having Sunday dinners at Mamma's and Pappa's in Preston.
My love to all.

“ Uncle Buck: May you now rest peacefully without discomfort. I admired your strength and perseverance during your fight. Although the battle was lost, you faced your destiny with strength and love for your family. You will be missed. I love you and will miss you as well.

“ Dad,
I cannot express how much I miss you. My world is like a puzzle with a piece missing. I am so sorry for all you had to endure with this disease. You were so strong and brave for all of us, I am so very proud of you Dad. I could not of asked for a better Father nor could Danny and Todd had a greater Grandfather. You have instilled the good in us and I hope to be as great as you one day. I love you Dad, I love you so much! You are always only a heartbeat away. Please continue to watch over all of us and make us strong during this hard time in our lives. Thanks for loving me and being my Dad.
Your Loving Daughter,
Kim
